STATINTL

You have been recommended for membership in the Agency Standby Reserve. This reserve is a register of selected former employees who might be available to return to the Agency for full time duty in the event of future urgent need or emergency, or who might be available to assist the Agency occasionally in limited fields of activity. Recording your name in this register does not obligate you to perform any services but does reflect your willingness to be considered as possibly available should the occasion arise.

If you wish to be included in this group, please complete the items listed on the reverse page and return it to us in the enclosed stamped envelope.

Sincerely,

E. D. Echols
Director of Personnel

I think this is a good idea for beyond this an indication of the mem-other way in which people might be of moving to other old people ought to be some real old about the "public relations sales pitch in this. I can see a lot of paper or several pages building up a little enthusiasm.
